

Itinerary for Seven Day Tour to French Alps Classe de Neige/Language Week

Day One :

Departure and onward travel to Bramans. There will be frequent stops to break the journey. These will be discussed with the party leaders.

Evening arrival at our accommodation and introductory talk on fire drill and facilities available to the party. Distribution of ski equipment.

Day Two :

After breakfast and language lesson, the group will transfer to the market at Bonneval sur Arc where we will spend the morning completing a work study.

Lunch at the centre and then an afternoon with French specialist animateurs, fully qualified to lead our excursion in the snow on raquettes.

Return to the centre and evening meal.

Day Three :

Breakfast and transfer to the slopes for a full day alpine skiing. Lessons will be held by Ecole Ski Francaise.

Evening meal at the hotel followed by a disco.

Day Four :

After breakfast and a language lesson, we will spend the morning dog sledging.

Lunch at the centre and then off to the mountains to learn about mountain vegetation and animals. Also mountain weather and survival techniques. Both of these activities will be led by fully experienced and qualified guides.

Return to our hotel and evening meal – soirée savoyarde.

Day Five :

After breakfast and a language lesson, the group will transfer to a cheese manufacturer to learn about the production of cheese in this area.

The afternoon will allow the group some time shopping in Lanslebourg and also to complete a work study. Alternatively, the group may prefer to transfer to a school to spend time conversing with French peers or going to the ice-rink.

Evening meal and musical entertainment.

Day Six :

Breakfast and a morning building igloos! There will be time to pack before lunch and the start of the return journey to the UK. Children will need enough money to buy supper. Crossing and morning arrival at school at approximately 10:00

Please note that this is not a ski week, it is a language tour designed to maximize the use of the target language wherever possible. All snow activities will be with French animateurs. There will also be a native French speaker with the group at all times
